Architecture, the Mother of all Arts, is a perfect blend of both- Art and Science- to build environments.

The Guwahati College of Architecture, aims in imparting Architectural knowledge to its students so as to bring out to the world the diversified- Art, Craft, Culture and Nature- of Assam and the other North-Eastern States.

This Architecture College was established by Architect Abani Das, the Trustee of Dona Foundations, Mumbai and a well known Builder and Developer. It was inaugurated on 26th January, 2006 by the Chief Minister of Assam, Shri Tarun Gogoi, in the presence of many Educationists.

The Guwahati College of Architecture is affiliated to the Guwahati University and has been approved by the Council of Architecture, Govt. of Assam for its 5 years degree course in Architecture with an annual intake of 80 students. Although new in its inception and being the first ever Architecture College of the North-Eastern Region, the Guwahati College of Architecture, aims in training its students to become quality Architects with positive attitude and perfect blend of technical and aesthetic skills. The academic programme of the College follows the syllabus of the Guwahati University.

The Guwahati College of Architecture has a faculty of high standard academic background with proper professional experiences. The faculty consists of full-time core faculty and part-time visiting faculty. Architect P.R. Das is the present Principal of the College.

The academic programme of the College consists of other study programmes and extra curricular activities so as to promote all round education and training to the students.

The College is located in a 22,000 sq. ft. of infrastructure in most modern premises. Being at the heart of the city, the College is approachable conveniently.
